SEPTEMBER 22

Good morning everyone,

It was so lovely to see children enjoying the sunshine last Friday—a rare treat last week! Please remember that most days now are likely to bring a few showers. Your child will still go outside to play if there is a light shower so it is very important that they bring a waterproof coat to school each day.

Flu Vaccinations are taking place this afternoon. If you did not manage to register your wish for your child to have this, please ring the office to give verbal permission.

4Front Theatre

Next Monday (29th September) all children in Years 1-6 will experience live theatre workshops from a Christian theatre company that help stories from the Bible come to life through drama and performing arts.

The theme for the day is 'Be Brave!' It will start with a performance for the whole school, classes will then be taking part in workshops throughout the day in the hall.

National Poetry Day

This year, National Poetry Day takes place on Thursday 2nd October, and the theme is 'play'.

Why not treat yourselves to a watch of Michael Rosen reading aloud one of my favourite poems... Chocolate Cake! Chocolate Cake | POEM | Kids' Poems and Stories With Michael Rosen

Our Vision

Growing confident and aspirational people who believe in themselves and contribute positively to their community and the wider world.

The King's Community Hub will be open after school on Thursday as we are expecting a Fareshare delivery. A huge thank you to the two parents that have offered to help. If you would like to help in the future please do pop into the office and speak to Sarah.

SJ Therapy provides us with speech and language support in school. It is now part of The Neurodiversity Hub, which offers autism and ADHD assessments for both children and adults. If you are seeking assessments, they operate locally. They also provide free resources for parents and teachers, updated every two weeks: www.theneurodiversityhub.co.uk

Attendance winners

Congratulations to Nicolas in Attenborough Class who was the Attendance winner last Friday. Davison Class won the best class attendance with 98.02%. I wonder who will win it this week!
